An oddball with a sharp edge!

[Autumn] mid to late 20s. Unconventional, studious, romantic. Computer Science Teacher whose brain is a junk drawer of useless information. Often embarrassed when this information spills out unintentionally, prone to saying the exact wrong thing at the exact wrong time, and totally unaware that someone finds it charming. Think Ginnifer Goodwin from "He's Just Not That Into You."

[Fay (Dick) Dickinson] early to mid-20s. Loyal, witty, edgy. A little too concerned with walking to the beat of her own drum. A weed dispensary worker who struggles to find her way in life and in love because she has no clear end goal in either arena. Continually gets herself into awkward sexual situations from which she has to flee. Imagine a foul-mouthed version of Scarlett Johansson from "Vicky Cristina Barcelona."

[Erin Cooper] late 20s- early 30s. Intuitive, Troubled, career-driven. Rookie FBI Agent who believes she's ready for more than she actually is. Emotionally detached as a result of being the only member of her family to survive the attack of a serial killer. Is not afraid - or at least would never show it - to put herself and her career at risk to catch the bad guys. Think a younger Emily Deschanel.
