

Veronica Wylie's Bookability sheet!

An oddball with a sharp edge

[Fay (Dick) Dickinson] mid 20s. Loyal, witty, edgy. A little too concerned with walking to the beat of her own drum. A bartender who doesn't know what she wants - only what she doesn't want. Continually gets herself into awkward sexual situations from which she has to flee.

[Autumn] early to mid 20s. Unconventional, studious, romantic. Computer Science Teacher. Her brain is a junk drawer of useless information. Often embarrassed when this information spills out at the wrong time, and totally unaware that someone finds it charming. Think Ginnifer Goodwin from "He's Just Not That Into You."

[Agent Cooper] late 20s- early 30s. Intuitive, Troubled, career driven. FBI Agent. Emotionally detached as a result of being the only member of her family to survive the attack of a serial killer. Is not afraid - or at least would never show it - to put herself and her career at risk to catch the bad guys. Think a younger Emily Deschanel.
